

Factors exercise

Type:

Career planning

Download (decision making tool.docx - 754.25 KB) [1]

The exercise enables you to compare careers you may be interested in so you need to have thoroughly researched the ones you are considering. It allows you to list the factors you want to include in your decision and to assign a value to them in terms of their importance.

It can be used as part of the decision making section of our career planning framework. [2]
