

Annual nursing payments

A range of financial support is available for all eligible undergraduate and postgraduate student nurses.

What is it?

Annual payments of at least £5,000 are available to help eligible undergraduate and postgraduate student nurses fund their studies. Best of all, they won't need to be repaid.

Student nurses studying or starting their course could receive at least £5,000.

Am I eligible?

Every eligible* student nurse will receive at least £5,000 training grant via the NHS Learning Support Fund \(LSF\) ^[1].

The package includes:

- training grant of £5,000 per year (for new and continuing students)
- parental support payment of £2,000 per student per year to help with childcare costs
- specialist subject payment of £1,000 per year for students studying mental health and learning disability nursing (new students only)
- help towards additional travel and accommodation costs to clinical placements over your normal daily travel costs
- an exceptional hardship fund of up to £3,000 per student per academic year

*Eligibility criteria for the new funding will be the same as the wider NHS Learning Support Fund ^[1] ^[2] payable to students ordinarily resident in the UK and studying at a university in England.

How do I find out more?

Further information will be available on our financial support at university page [3] as it becomes available.
